

S. J. Vijay

Mr. S. J Vijay, post graduated in Science from Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi and researched in Molecular Biology.

His Banking career began with State Bank of India and was involved in establishing ICICI Bank, IndusInd Bank and was Country head of Centurian Bank (now part of HDFC) in 2000.

He is currently the Chairman of Salmon Leap India which is the Indian parent of hoM Mission India.

Through Salmon Leap, Mr. Vijay was involved in the formulation of Policy and Law relating to Special Economic Zones, Solar Energy, Investment Regions, Industrial Parks. Salmon Leap has Program Managed some of the largest of these projects from identification of land up to the listing of the company undertaking these projects.

In 2011, Salmon Leap brought in the 3D Monolithic Volumetric Modular precast into India to manufacture, assemble and install different building types catering to residential, hospitality, educational, logistics and industrial sectors.

He has been a speaker in International Forum and has been invited for Knowledge sharing sessions by countries like Singapore in the recent past.

Salmon Leap and hoM Mission together contribute to the full spectrum from Policy to on ground solutions addressing the challenges of the surging Indian economy and its infrastructure.
